

Volunteer Lawyers Program

The Wyoming State Bar recognizes that attorneys throughout the state provide volunteer services on a routine basis. In an effort to support those of you already providing services and to encourage others to participate, the Wyoming State Bar is partnering with the Wyoming Center for Legal Aid to strive to facilitate the volunteer process by diversifying the ways in which you can become involved. Please consider volunteering for some of the options below. The Wyoming State Bar will maintain a list of attorneys who are willing to provide pro bono services. This list will be shared with Wyoming's legal service providers in order to match attorneys with appropriate cases and pro bono events.
